

Rape complainant to record statement before court today

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
SURAT, AUGUST 1

Accused BJP leader Jayanti Bhanushali is yet to be arrested

THE 21-YEAR-OLD Surat woman, who has accused BJP leader Jayanti Bhanushali of raping her multiple times, is expected to record her statement before the judicial magistrate here on Thursday. The Surat district court on Wednesday granted permission to police to record her statement under section 164 of the CrPC.

Bhanushali is yet to be arrested. Police claimed that they have not been able to trace the former BJP MLA who has failed to appear before them despite summons being issued to him.

"We have received an intimation from the court for the complainant in which it was mentioned that she should remain present before the court on Thursday 4 pm. She will record her statement before the judicial magistrate against Bhanushali," said Bharti Mukherjee, the lawyer of the complainant.

On Tuesday, Bhanushali's relative testified against the woman complainant before the Surat Crime Branch over extortion allegations. Mumbai resident Karshan Bhanushali, who is the father-in-law of accused's daughter, told police that Jayanti "has a reputation in society and this was a ploy to defame him with an intention to extort money from him".

Soon after the BJP leader approached the High Court for quashing the rape FIR against him, an Ahmedabad-based woman, who is friend of the complainant, sought quashing of another extortion case filed against her in Naliya in Kutch district, saying that the charges were pressed against her under "political pressure".

In her complaint to the police on July 18, the 21-year-old had alleged that in the last one year she was raped by Jayanti Bhanushali multiple times on the pretext of giving her admission in a reputed fashion designing college in Ahmedabad.

In the complaint, she had also alleged that the BJP leader had made video clips of the sexual encounters and sent men to her house with three MMS clips of her. Police, later, filed an FIR against Bhanushali and four others.

PARENTS, HINDU OUTFIT MEMBERS PROTEST

Bharuch school apologises for suspending students over henna

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
VADODARA, AUGUST 1

PARENTS AND members of Hindu outfits stormed a convent school in Bharuch chanting Hanuman Chalisa on Wednesday morning and forced the school authorities to apologise for barring 40 girl students from attending classes for having applied henna on their palms as a part of the Gauri Vrat celebration.

According to the protesting parents, they were summoned by Queen of Angels Convent School on Wednesday and asked not to send their children to school until the colour of the henna faded.

"My daughter, a student of Class VIII, soaked her hands in lemon water on Tuesday evening and scrubbed it repeatedly to get rid of the henna so that she could be able to attend school as early as possible. She has been in the school for over five years, but we never came across such an incident. The school has its set of rules like every other school does, but that doesn't mean they hurt our religious sentiments," said Kunal Jariwala, one of the protesting parents.

According to him, the school manager on Tuesday picked out all the girls from each class who had henna on their hands and assembled them at principal's office. "The principal rebuked them for applying henna and asked them to join school only after the colour fades. The students were made to stand outside their classrooms for more than two hours and not allowed to attend classes at all," he alleged.

As the parents protested, local BJP MLA Dushyant Patel and members of multiple Hindu outfits like RSS, VHP, Hindu Maha Sabha, Hindu Jagran Manch and all Ganesh mandals, reached school and protested, demanding a written apology from the school. Chanting 'Bharat Mata Ki Jai', members of the Hindu outfits hung a photo of 'Bharat Mata' on the school building wall.

They even wrote a letter to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Chief Minister Vijay Rupani and state Education Minister Bhupendrasinh Chudasma demanding action against the school. "The principal of the school has time and again hurt the religious sentiments of Hindu students and has tried to impose practices of Christian religion on them. India is a secular country and education and religion are not related to each other," the letter stated, urging the police to file an FIR against the school.

After police reached the school, principal of the school Sister Mary in a brief address to the media said, "All I have to say is, after today such an incident won't be repeated in the school at all, and we respect all the religions. It is not like we give more importance to Catholic festivals. We celebrate Diwali, Navratri and we respect every festival and every religion."

CHHARANAGAR CLASH

It was police terrorism, govt should apologise: Chavda

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, AUGUST 1

'Shameful of police to pull people out of their houses'

STATE CONGRESS president Amit Chavda, Leader of Opposition in the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation (AMC) Dinesh Sharma along with others on Wednesday visited Chharanagar, where recently several locals were allegedly beaten up by police during raids to seize liquor.

After meeting the victims, Chavda demanded that the state government must tender an apology. Calling it an incident of "police terrorism", the Congress leader said that such incidents could not be accepted in a civilised society under any circumstances.

He said that if a member of a community or a locality had committed some offence, legal action should be taken against the particular accused but police, under no circumstances, could be permitted to resort to atrocities on an entire community or residents of a society. "It was highly shameful of police to pull people out of their houses in Chharanagar, beat them up and destroy their belongings and vehicles. It was a kind of police terrorism. The government must compensate the people for their losses," Chavda said. The residents of Chharanagar belong to a denotified tribe. Last week, 29 people were arrested in Chharanagar and booked for rioting after a clash took place between police and locals over liquor raids.
